Edible Surfaces

Erik Spande and Leslie Vanderleeuw are the co-owners of the Amsterdam chocolate shop Chocólatl, which sells eclectic, premium sweets. Struck by the parallel processes of chocolate artisans and textile makers, they partnered with Arantza Vilas of the creative textile studio Pinaki Studios to create Edible Surfaces. The project, which draws its inspiration from textile manipulations like pleating, creasing, and embossing, presents the chocolates next to the textile pieces that inspired them, and is sponsored by Rococo Chocolates.
